BlueSpiceUserManager provides a visual interface for user administration.

Contents

1 Usage / features ................................................................. 1
2 Technical information ......................................................... 2
   2.1 Configuration ................................................................. 2
   2.2 Rights (permissions) .......................................................... 2
   2.3 Requirements ................................................................. 2
3 More info ......................................................................... 2

Usage / features

The extension enables the following actions:

- create a new user
- assign a user to a group
- change user data
- change the password
- delete users (multiple selections possible)
- sort, filter, and export the user list
Technical information

Configuration

This extension offers no configurations.

Rights (permissions)

The rights for the user administration are by default part of the roles admin, maintenanceadmin und accountmanager:

- usermanager-viewspecialpage: create and manager users
- usermanager-editpassword: change password
- renameuser: change username

Requirements

UserManager requires BlueSpiceFoundation.

More info

For a detailed description and usage, visit our help page.